

ARTIST AGREEMENT

_____ (ARTIST) agrees to paint a "Look Out, It's Lucy!" statue entitled, " _____ " at the Paint-Off on May 20, 21, 22 and 23 until 4:00 pm.

SCOPE OF WORK

ARTIST RESPONSIBILITY:

ARTIST will provide all materials for the Paint-off.

ARTIST will maintain the statue during the promotional period May 26 – September 22. ARTIST will complete the statue during the Paint-off period of May 20, 21, 22 and 4 pm on the 23rd.

ARTIST will hold harmless the POP Committee and Arts Council of Sonoma County for any liability during the Paint-off period.

ARTIST will use materials suitable for outdoor use. Suggested material list is included on the website. (www.PeanutsonParade.com)

ARTIST will not use the design for profit, but can use it in a portfolio.

ARTIST will not be allowed to duplicate the design for other uses.

STEERING COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITY:

POP will provide security for the statue during the Paint-off period.

POP will transport the statue to the location chosen by the Sponsor.

POP will take care of all transportation of statues.

POP will be responsible for any damage to the statue caused as part of transporting the statue.

POP will handle major repairs.

POP will include the ARTIST name in promotional material, including the map.

The Peanuts on Parade event is intended to encourage an artistic or playful interpretation or representation of the characters. For this reason, Sponsor corporate logos, slogans, or commercial identities on or as any part of the statue, including the title of the statue, are not allowed. All design changes will be submitted to the Steering Committee prior to completion, even if they occur at the Paint-off.

United Media will retain ownership of the design and can use the design for other purposes.

Jennifer Sloan, Arts Council of Sonoma County

Date

"Look Out, It's Lucy!" Artist

Date